SV SILICON VALLEY BOYCHOIR
SVBOYCHOIR.ORG

Choral Director part-time position

Founded in 2010, the Silicon Valley Boychoir, an after-school program for boys 7-18 years old in Palo Alto, CA, is planning for rehearsals for January 2027.

The ideal candidate will be an experienced vocal/choral teacher who enjoys teaching young boys.

Responsibilities:

- Direct one intermediate choir,10-15 boys (grades 4-6), Tuesdays, 4-6 p.m. time is negotiable.
- Prep for rehearsals including creating lesson plans and selecting music in collaboration with other directors as needed.
- Reinforce sight-reading lessons as part of the rehearsal curriculum.
- Communicate with parents and provide semester-end evaluations
- The position includes up to two additional weekend rehearsals per semester, one dress rehearsal each semester, and two concerts (December and May). Salaried position over 10 months in Palo Alto.

Additional perks:

- An accompanist will be provided for part of the rehearsal.
- Boys are taught sight-reading and music theory by additional staff.
- Indoor and outdoor space is available.
- The site is located in a residential neighborhood with excellent parking.
- The organization has very supportive parents.

Qualifications:

- Vocal Music Education degree or equivalent
- Familiar with Curwen handsigns and using movable doh
- Excellent communication and organizational skills

Compensation:

$7000/year paid over 10 months, August-May

To apply send a resume to Julia@svboychoir.org

Mission statement:

To train boys in the choral art with an emphasis on music literacy and the highest artistic standards. Boys will learn life-long skills and go forth into the world as skilled tenors and basses and leaders in their future choirs.